OPERATING POLICY - SRA COMMUNICATION & OUTREACH

1. PURPOSE

1.1 To define a communication strategy that provides framework for the SRA to advertise and disseminate information discussed at meetings through appropriate social media channels on a timely basis;

1.2 To define the major constituent outreach pathway of the SRA by setting parameters for Outreach Hours.

2. IMPLEMENTATION

2.1 Responsibility for the implementation of this policy shall be with the Speaker and Caucus Leader, as delegated by the Vice-President Administration.

3. COMMUNICATION STRATEGY

3.1 Administration:

3.1.1 The Speaker shall:

3.1.1.1 Circulate a sign-up sheet to all SRA members with each SRA meeting planned for the year on it within one (1) week of those dates being available;

3.1.1.2 Release the communications schedule by September 1;

3.1.2 Each SRA member shall sign up to be responsible for developing and distributing communication material that contains content, which appropriately summarizes the meeting:

3.1.2.1 Communication material includes but is not limited to videos, pictures, posters, class talk speeches, etc.

3.1.3 Communication material shall be completed by a minimum of two (2) and maximum of three (3) SRA members;

3.1.3.1 It is the responsibility of the communication material creators to decide how to divide the work and complete their assigned part(s) in a timely manner;

3.1.4 In the case of an emergency SRA meeting, an emergency sign-up will be held and any SRA members available can choose to sign up;
3.1.4.1 Emergency communication material should be held to the same regulations that non-emergency communication material are held to;

3.1.5 It is encouraged that all SRA members working on communication material should be from different caucuses to ensure a diverse range of opinions.

3.2 Content:

3.2.1 It is encouraged that all communication content contains some or all of the following sections:

3.2.1.1 Key Points, where the pertinent points of the meeting are listed and outlined in a concise manner;
3.2.1.2 Get Involved, where upcoming opportunities for student involvement are listed and outlined in a concise manner;
3.2.1.3 Find Out More, where links to further information on matters discussed in Key Points and Get Involved can be found;
3.2.1.4 Next Meeting, where the date, time, and location of the next SRA meeting is given.

3.3 Logistics:

3.3.1 Communication material is to be completed within twenty four (24) hours of an SRA meeting;

3.3.2 The SRA members who complete the communication material are responsible for circulating it to the Speaker for review immediately upon completion;

3.3.3 The Speaker is to review the content within one (1) business day to ensure all information is correct and in good taste;

3.3.4 Should the Speaker deem that edits need to be made:

3.3.4.1 The content is to be sent back to the members who created it with recommendations for edits immediately upon review;
3.3.4.2 The creators must consider the recommended edits within twenty-four (24) hours and send it back to the Speaker for review immediately upon completion;

3.3.4.2.1 After this step the cycle is to be repeated until the content is appropriate for distribution;

3.4 Promotion and Advertising:

3.4.1 Each caucus is responsible for sharing communication content on all caucus social media accounts within twenty four (24) hours of receiving the finalized content;

3.4.2 All SRA members are encouraged to share communication content on personal social media accounts.
