OPERATING POLICY — QUEER STUDENTS COMMUNITY CENTRE
(QSCC) MSU PRIDE COMMUNITY CENTRE (PCC)

For the purpose of this Operating Policy, the following definition shall apply:

QUEER: An all-inclusive term encompassing gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgender people, as well those who do not identify with any standard sexual orientation or gender identity.

1. PURPOSE

   1.1. The QSCCPCC shall aim to educate the McMaster community in general, continually working towards the goal of a campus free from prejudice and discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation and gender identity;

   1.2. The QSCCPCC will also serve as a principle participant in assisting the growth and development of the LGBTQ2SI+ Queer community in the Greater Hamilton Area;

   1.3. The QSCCPCC will operate as a safe space and contact point for LGBTQ2SI+ queers and their supporters on campus and provide regular social and educational activities.

2. OPERATING PARAMETERS

   1.2.1. The QSCCPCC shall offer a safe space in its office and associated spaces for LGBTQ2SI+ queers and their supporters to come and feel welcome and secure. This office is to be staffed during class hours, Monday to Friday, or at the discretion of the Coordinator during special circumstances;

   1.2.2. The QSCCPCC shall provide structured social events to create a sense of inclusion and community among LGBTQ2SI+ queers and their supporters. Social events will reflect the diversity of the community;

   1.2.3. The QSCCPCC shall provide informal support services including, but not limited to discussion groups, welcome newcomer meetings, and anonymous phone lines. Individual and group peer support. These settings will allow students with training and/or experience in these matters to share their knowledge with those who may need it. Any personal information divulged at these meetings shall be held in the strictest of confidence and will not be shared outside of the support session without written permission, or threat of imminent danger to the parties concerned;
